Saludos amigos,

Hispanic Heritage Month is an insufficient amount of time to celebrate the culture and resilience of our community. We should live every day with pride in our culture, pride in our Latinidad. We use this month to join together in spaces like these to grow in our appreciation of our great diversity and also in our commonalities across our backgrounds.

As we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, we're also very conscious that there are only 26 days until the general election. We must take this opportunity to celebrate the work that our community has done to get us where we are today. We have seen the lengths people go to restrict and silence us, yet we still fight every day. With a changing nation, we must be the driving force for positive change. Georgia alone is home to over 90,000 newly naturalized citizen voters, most of whom are from Asia and Latin America. That is more than enough votes to determine our elections. The Latinx electorate at 385,000 strong is more than a force to be reckoned with but is also a force that should be respected and recognized for years to come.

GALEO's mission is to ensure recognition and respect are given, and our "Luchar. Votar. Poder." campaign is in full swing. If you see our campaign on social media, radio, television, flyers, or yard signs, let us know! This campaign culminates part of the work GALEO does to educate and motivate our community in Georgia, and we could not be more proud of it.

With the help of our supporters, funders, and sponsors, we equip our community with everything they need to get their voices heard this upcoming election. GALEO would not be the same without you all, and neither would Georgia. Please join me in continuing to support GALEO and our work for our community.

¡Vamos a luchar por nuestra democracia, votar por nustra comunidad, y ejercer nuestro poder!

¡Feliz Mes nacional de la herencia hispana!

Un fuerte abrazo.

Jerry Gonzalez

MET OUR SPEAKERS

Julie Chavez Rodriguez

Senior Advisor and Assistant to the President and Director of the White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs

Julie Chavez Rodriguez currently serves Senior Advisor and Assistant to the President as well as Director of the White House Office of Intergovernmental Affairs. Prior to joining the Biden-Harris Administration, she served as a Deputy Campaign

Manager on the Biden-Harris Campaign. Before that, she was National Political Director and traveling Chief of Staff for then-Senator Kamala Harris' presidential campaign. Prior to launching Senator Harris' campaign, she served as California State Director in her senate office. During the Obama-Biden administration, Chavez Rodriguez served as Special Assistant to the President and Senior Deputy Director of Public Engagement in the Office of Public Engagement. Before joining the White House, Chavez Rodriguez served as the Director of Youth Employment at the Department of the Interior and as Deputy Press Secretary to former Secretary of the Interior Ken Salazar. Earlier in her career, she served as the Director of Programs at the Cesar E. Chavez Foundation. A native of California, she is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley.

Frank Fernandez

Frank Fernandez joined the Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta in August 2020, where he leads one of America's top 20 largest community foundations. Prior to joining the Foundation, he served for six years as the Senior Vice President for The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation where he led transformational revitalization of Atlanta's Westside while simultaneously directing Blank's community development, global giving, health access and social justice initiatives.

A recognized leader on affordable housing, transportation and economic development, Fernandez' 15 years in management positions in Texas prior to joining the Blank Foundation included eight years leading Green Doors, an Austin nonprofit devoted to transforming lives and neighborhoods and five years as Deputy Director of PeopleFund, a community development financial institution.

A son of Cuban immigrants, Frank is a Florida native and holds a B.A. in philosophy from Harvard University and an M.P.A. from the LBJ School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas. After graduation, he worked on Wall Street as a public sector financial analyst for Salomon Smith Barney, structuring over $1 billion in financial transactions, before pursuing his graduate degree.
