April Events & Updates

Cesar Chavez Day at the Capitol

The last day of March was a busy one! On March 31st, we awarded the Cesar Chavez Essay Contest winners at the Capitol on Cesar Chavez Day. The winners had the chance to read their essays to the attendees and reflect on the vital role our farmworkers play daily under harsh circumstances.

Staff and Board Members Dinner and Retreat

Mid-April, we had our staff and board member dinner and retreat weekend. We had a great time as an organization getting to know each other better and sharing our visions and plans for our future. All of our C3 board members were reelected! This year is significant to us since Galeo is turning 20 years of existence! Thank you to our staff and board members for your assistance and commitment.

GSU GIL Graduation

On our Leadership side, we had the Georgia State University graduation for our Galeo Institute of Leadership. Witnessing great leadership qualities in our Latino community is always encouraging and satisfying. Thanks to programs like our Galeo Institute Leadership, more Latinos and Latinas can be more trained, skilled, and involved in civic engagement activities.

Dalton State Leaders Series

We also were in Dalton, where the vibrant and growing Latino community welcomed us for our Leadership Series. We had a great time with all the attendees, facilitators, panelists, and keynote speakers—big shoutout to our partners CLILA, ALPFA, and Digame News for helping us to promote our event. We are hopeful about how important these sessions are to help empower our Latino Community. Canvasser Updates

We started voter registration two weeks ago and already have 69 registered voters! Remember: your voice is your vote!

¡Vamos pa'fuera!

April was International Earth Month, and to celebrate it, we just launched our program "Vamos pa'fuera". With this initiative, we want to raise awareness within the Latino Community on several environmental issues that affect us all. In "Vamos pa fuera," we strive for a world where our Latino community is environmentally conscious, culturally committed to preserving nature, and can enjoy a healthy outdoor lifestyle.

2023 Power Breakfast!

Last but not least, we had our annual Power Breakfast! This year was exceptional since GALEO received from Senator Jason Estevez a 20th-year proclamation unanimously voted by the Georgia Senate, acknowledging the essential work that GALEO has done for the past 20 years. Our Power Breakfast was a success! Thank you, everyone, for attending. Thank you to all of our speakers and supporters. Without you, GALEO will not have the impact that we have, and because of your continuous support, we have been able to change the Latino reality and fight for more equal laws for our community.
