

February was full of activities and events that helped our staff to get close to our communities and promote civic engagement.

February Updates

We had our first Latino Day at the Capitol, and it was so exciting! Co-hosted with the Latino Community Fund, around 200 attendees got to know our Capitol and learned how to express their concerns to their representatives. Thanks to activities like these, our communities can learn and experience important items such as how laws are created and built.

GALEO's Community Organizers were out in the community at several events! First, at the Patagonia store at Krog Street market. As their first official event of the year, people were able to come in and get to know local non-profits. They also attended the Black History Month Heritage Celebration hosted by the Gwinnett Justice and Administration Center. Both events help us to get closer to the community and allow us to engage in constructive conversations.

We are still accepting items for the Silent Auction! If you are interested in donating items, or contributing in another way, please contact Elizabeth Scott at escott@galeo.org.

DEADLINE EXTENDED!

We have extended our deadline! So pick up your laptops, iPads, pens, or pencils and write about one of the most important Latinx advocates of the past century, Cesar Chavez. The new deadline is February 3, so hurry up and don't miss the chance to win amazing prizes.

GIL OPENING!

This past month we had our 2023 GIL Cohort start in mid-February. We kicked off our opening reception at Kettlerock Brewery. They are a local brewery that likes collaborating with nonprofits. Thank you to those who came out and welcomed our new cohort. Thanks to Gilda (Gigi) Pedraza, Executive Director and Founder of LCF, for being our night's keynote speaker. Thank you again to all those that came out to support us, and we cannot wait to see the great work this incoming cohort will do.

Hola GALEO Familia,

On February 27, we had our first Latino Day at the Capitol. This is the one that will kick off many more to come. As Cesar Chavez's grandson, I follow in his tracks of pushing for more civic participation, not only during elections but every day. My grandfather used to say that we'll never have a perfect political system but we can have perfect participation. Today is a mark of that more perfect participation. We need to know how the system works, and that's why days like these are relevant and vital for our Latino communities.

Huge THANK YOU to all the attendees and people who made this possible and to our partners and co-host, Latino Community Fund.

¡Sí se puede!
Alejandro Chávez
DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF GALEO

New Staff Member!

Welcome to Nancy Juarez! Our new Community Organize. Nancy Juarez Sánchez (she/her) is from the beautiful state of Michoacan Mexico.

She is a first-generation college graduate from Sacramento State University of California with a bachelor's in Biology and Business Management and a minor in Latino Studies. She is married with 3 kids, 4 dogs & 1 cat and soon a baby pig. She loves traveling and trying new foods and is a huge foodie. She is passionate about educating her community and ensuring their voice is heard. She is passionate about community service and love giving back to those in need.

She is excited to be a part of GALEO and says that she “hopes to be able to continue to help this amazing organization by adding my small grain of sand and creating an impact on our community.”

Welcome Nancy!
